IF YOUR BOY DOES SOME DELINQUENTS DAMAGE WITH A SLINGSHOT ARE WAKING UP TO THE LAW

You Will Be Made to Pay for the Harm and a Fine Besides; Police Receive Complaints.

Complaints have been made to the police that boys with slingshots have become a menace. Several boys are said to have been hurt, more or less seriously, by stones shot at them by companions. One boy in the high lands is said to be in danger of losing his sight because of a sharp stone driven into the eyeball through the lid. He is only six years old and the doctor is afraid that if the sight of one eye goes the other will also be affected.

The police will enforce the ordinance against slingshots and bean-shooters strictly. Every boy caught with one will be locked up. Complaints from neighbors will be acted upon and the cases pressed.

Parents or guardians of minors found in possession of slingshots or beanshooters are amenable to the law. In the case of damage done by a boy with a slingshot, his father, mother or guardian will have to pay for the damage done, and stand a fine of $10 in addition.

ALL ALBUQUERQUE PEOPLE INVITED TO RECEPTION

Everybody Interested in Good Roads or Desiring to Aid in Welcoming Visitors Asked to Attend.

All Albuquerque people who are interested in good roads or who wish to aid in welcoming the visiting delegates to the association are urged to attend the smoker and reception at the Commercial club this evening.

While there will be a few speeches, they will be by good speakers, and will be of interest to all. There will be a string quartet on duty and a quartet of vocalists also will ramble through a few scales. There will be lunch in unbounded quantities and a sufficiency of smoke for all who attend.

This smoker is held with the dual object of entertaining the delegates, who are here and of interesting the local people in the cause of good roads and getting them acquainted with the visitors from the different parts of the state.

A. G. Simms will officiate as master of ceremonies. Several sections of the state will be heard from briefly.

"This is certainly Albuquerque's chance to get into the good graces of this association," said F. S. Donnell, of the Commercial club-Retail Merchants committee in charge of the affair, this morning. "We are learning now that we cannot have conventions here if we show no interest in them ourselves, as witness the way attendants have fallen down here, largely because we did not pay enough attention to the convention several years ago, when it was held here. If we ever want these people again it is up to us to get busy right now and show them that we appreciate their coming here. Many of them will travel 100 miles to reach this meeting and return to their homes. That alone warrants them to consideration on our part. This evening's program is not going to be long enough to bore anybody, even if it was not as interesting as it is. Albuquerque ought to turn out and if Albuquerque does turn out, Albuquerque will have a fine time and will do some good for Albuquerque."

ANTEDILUVIAN.

Said Noah: "Wife, I've had a dream—(No, I'm not always dreaming!) I dreamed the sea was everywhere, The sea was all a running stream,
And there was darkness in the air,
And not a star was gleaming Above the waters black and bare;
And everything was drowned—Don't stare!
(No, only weak tea, Walla!)

"So, wife, I'm going to build a ship; For if this dreadful dream comes true,
And mountains in the water slip,
As all last night I saw them do—(I've told you twice 't was ten, not two,
When I came indoors, Walla!)

"You doubt if I could build a boat, And if I did, it would not float?
You're always doubting, Walla!
Why, on the Tigris, when a lad—O no, it is not quite so bad!
No, I am not so old as that.
I have not yet reached forty score!
Were I a thousand, less or more, How old would you be?—Just a bluff!
Well, then, you needn't be so blunt!
Not necessarily a punt

"Of course I'll try to keep tushore, ...
I know the water may be rough ...
A few; there'll not be room enough; We'll take those two nice girls next door
.... Well, I'll be blessed!
They are not worse than all the rest!
That is not true—I never swore!
O, let them drown, then, if you won't!
You and the children,—no, no more ...
It does seem selfish! Take the cat!
'T would be unlucky if we don't—We never should see Arrarat!

"Yes, take the pony and the cow, And all the animals you wish (And leave the poor girls out, I vow!) O, no, I would not take the fish!
Please pack my new roof, Walla!"

GERMANS ACCUSED OF MANY ACTS OF CRUELTY

Kaiser's Soldiers Have Violated Rights of Man in Many Specified Instances, Claim of French.

(By Evening Herald Special Wire)

Paris, Aug. 2, (11:50 a. m.)—The commission presided over by Georges Payelle, president of the French court of accounts, has presented to Premier Viviani the final report of its investigation into acts on the part of the German soldiers in violation of the rights of man.

This report contains 12,000 words and gives in detail the evidence gathered concerning the use by German troops of military and civilian prisoners as shields against the fire of French troops, as well as of the employment by the troops of Emperor William of cartridges in which the bullets were reversed, in order to cause more serious wounds; split bullets and other bullets, cut to make them more rending.

Continuing, the report cites orders given by General Stenger, commander of the fifty-eighth German brigade, directing his soldiers to kill the wounded enemy and take no more prisoners. Evidence confirming the issuing and the circulation of this order was obtained from German prisoners belonging to the 111th and 142d regiments. The report contains evidence of a massacre of French soldiers as a result of this order, as well as the massacre of wounded men after the battle of Feth in Belgium. It represents the allegations of many individual soldiers who declare they saw their wounded comrades put to death.

The report devotes considerable space to allegations of the inhumanity of the Germans to their prisoners of war which it says is proved by the evidence of the victims.

The report concludes with three chapters of evidence to prove the bombarding of ambulances by the Germans; the firing upon stretcher bearers, and the taking prisoner of surgons. In some cases, it is set forth, French surgeons were arrested by German surgeons and by them sent to the rear to be interned.

BANK ROBBER DRAWS LONG PRISON SENTENCE

Chandler, Okla., Aug. 2.—Henry Starr pleaded guilty to bank robbery today in the district court and was sentenced to twenty-five years in the penitentiary. A jury was being empanelled this afternoon for the trial of Claude Sawyer, one of Starr's alleged accomplices.

Henry Starr, last of the Starr gang of bandits, was charged with the robbery of two banks of Stroud, Okla., into which he led his gang last March and took an aggregate of $5,000.
Starr was wounded after the robbery and four of his men—Claude Sawyer, "Bill" Maxwell, Charles Johnson and Louis Bates—were captured and are awaiting trial.

Henry Starr's life has been full of action. He has made rich hauls in bank robberies, engaged in the fighting of trains, battled with posses seeking to arrest him, aided in quelling a jail outbreak and successfully tried—following a pardon by President Roosevelt in 1905—to reform.
Henry Starr was born in Fort Gibson, Okla., December 2, 1873. His father, George Starr, was a respectable full-blooded Cherokee Indian.
His mother, Mary Scott, was a quarter-blood Cherokee.

STERN, SCHLOSS & CO. HAVE NOT SOLD OUT

In the Evening Herald of Saturday, July 31st, it was stated that the firm of Stern, Schloss & Co., had been absorbed by the Meyers company of this city. This was an error. The Stern & Schloss company is doing business at the same old stand where it has been doing business for the past eleven years and where it will continue to do business for a good many years to come. Stern, Schloss & Co. have no intention of closing out their business.

BULL MOOSE WILL BE IN RACE IS PREDICTION

Victor Murdock, Chairman of Progressive National Committee, Believes That Third Party May Win in 1916.

(By Evening Herald Special Wire)

Mount Pleasant, Ia., Aug. 2.—Victor Murdock of Kansas, chairman of the progressive national committee, made the following statement today:
"I have just completed a three months' personal canvass of the situation with the progressives in the central west and on the Pacific coast and after making it I am ready to say flatfooted that we progressives are going into the 1916 fight as a party and to win."

"Notwithstanding a meeting of representative progressives held this month in New York City reported the same conditions in the east that I have found in the west and they are bringing up for the next battle. This also is the sentiment of the progressive national committee. We will hold our national convention early and nominate a ticket."

"The great convention battle of 1915 will not be over candidates but will be over platforms. The storm will rage, not in the committee of credentials, but in the committee on resolutions. The fourth republican leadership will not only insist on a sound credit, but will fight for an unimpaired and unimpaired independence of the administration of William Howard Taft, including the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill."

"The democratic leadership likewise will point with pride to the equally in-memorable Blinnom-Underwood tariff bill and against a Bryan incarnation of the 19th magnitude will issue the one-man presidential platform and other Bryan propaganda, and the progressive will reiterate and re-emphasize their Chicago platform of 1912. That platform remains the most nearly perfect utterance of the principles of Abraham Lincoln of modern times."
